

Food Northwest's Education and Research Institute Scholarships

Apply now for scholarships. Deadline for applications is June 30, 2018.

Our company is a member of Food Northwest. Established in 1914, Food Northwest is a non-profit association of food companies in Idaho, Oregon and Washington. Each year since its 75th anniversary in 1989, Food Northwest and its Education and Research Institute has awarded scholarships to deserving students in the states of Idaho, Oregon and Washington.

The purpose of these scholarships is to attract and encourage students to pursue a career in the food industry and to encourage and support current employees of the industry to further their education. The food industry offers a variety of career options and promises an exciting opportunity to work for one of many highly successful, well-known companies.

Two types of scholarships are offered:

Land Grant University Scholarships

These $2,500 scholarships are open to students pursuing degrees at the University of Idaho, Oregon State University and Washington State University. Employees and family members of Food Northwest food processor member companies can apply for these scholarships.

Food Northwest Processor Member Scholarships

These $1,000 scholarships are open to current full-time employees and family of Food Northwest food processor member companies.

If you or a family member are interested in this opportunity, we encourage you to apply. For more information see foodnorthwest.org/eri-scholarship.